Veterans' Memorial Salute… Thank You!

We thank all who braved rain to place flags at gravesites and salute our 518 veterans heading into Memorial Day… including Cedar Cliff HS JROTC Cadets and Wrestling Team, American Legion Post 143, Trinity Church Pastor Arun Andrews, Senator Dawn Keefer, Mayor Joan Erney, Chris Leukas, David Gipe, Buglers George Young & Jamie Bream, and reporting by WGAL (https://bit.ly/4e14HUY) and PennLive (https://bit.ly/3HCjkSu)

Honor Veterans with Christmas Wreaths… You Can Order Today!

Mt. Olivet is proud to join Wreaths Across America to honor and thank our veterans with live balsam wreaths on their graves December 13th. You can join by sponsoring one or more wreaths today at only $17 each for a specific veteran and/or unnamed heroes. If you can't join us the 13th, others will place wreaths for you. For more information and sponsorship… http://www.wreathsacrossamerica.org/PA0950P

Veterans Gravestone Cleaning… Workshop Volunteers Invited!

More than 240 gravestones of veterans and their families have been cleaned over the past three years thanks to volunteers. If you're interested in a workshop to learn how it's done at Arlington National Cemetery, please email or phone us and lead volunteer Elaine Brinley will make it happen.

Mt. Olivet Beautification Fund… Please Donate Today!

Help further beautify Mt. Olivet by donating to enhance grounds, plant trees, clean and repair gravestones, add picnic tables, and more. We rely on donations as individual families are no longer charged perpetual care fees due to our belief that every grave deserves eternal care. We thank those who've given and ask all to consider donating today by check or through our website, below.

Thank you,
Your Friends at Mt. Olivet Cemetery
